16. Suppose debate is open to a second rank amendment and a member proposes the motion to table the current motion and all motions belonging to it. In such circumstance, not only is the second rank amendment tabled, but the first rank amendment is tabled as well; this allows for open debate on the motion to which the amendments would have affected.
17. The incidental motion, previous question, can interrupt a speaker if they are only offering debate or discussion on the question in which the proposer wishes for such to be terminated.
18. There are at least four ways that members may modify a motion to refer a motion to a special committee.
19. The president/chair is duty bound to enforce correct rules of procedure; if the president happens to miss an error in procedure, the members are entitled to call a point of order to bring attention to the error and restore order.
20. A vote is not required on a point of order, although one can be taken if the decision has been referred to the chapter by the chair, at which time a two-thirds vote is necessary.
21. If a member feels that the presiding officer has made a decision that he/she should not have, the member is entitled to rise and appeal from the decision of the chair. At this time all members will be able to vote to sustain or not sustain the decision of the chair.
22. It is not order to suspend rules relating to a constitution or to by-laws.
23. If the chair is in doubt as to the result of a voice vote, he/she does not need to call a division; the vote should simply be put to the chapter again so that the chair can make an announcement of the vote.
24. An appeal requires a majority vote or a tie vote to sustain the chair.
25. After obtaining the floor, a member wishing to refer a motion can state, "I move that we refer the motion that... to a special committee on..." OR "to the standing committee on... "
